

Sha Tin College Students Represent Hong Kong in Debating Competition

by David Hooper, Head of English

Austin Lee IIA, has been selected to represent Hong Kong in the annual Worlds Schools Debating Championships 2012 which will be held at Cape Town, South Africa this year. Austin will join four other students from Hong Kong to fly to South Africa in January. The competition begins on the 17th January and continues for ten days.

Austin has been selected after competing in a number of Debate competitions over the last four months. Another Sha Tin College student, Annette Chau who is now studying at university in England, also represented the College in this competition in Doha, Qatar in 2010.

After a day of rigorous trials held on the 26th November, Justin Lee of IIT has also been selected to represent Hong Kong along with seven other students in the World Individual Public Speaking and Debating Championships 2012. This competition is to be held in Brisbane, Australia from 29th March to 9th April.

The Hong Kong students will be competing against others from twenty different countries.

Sha Tin College students Geoffrey Liew 2010 and Yiling Ding 2009 have also represented Hong Kong in this competition previously.
